PARENTS

*"Jim Keith is an expert in his field. Jim demonstrates integrity, provides excellent communication, and his word is as good as gold. I highly recommend Jim Keith." - Jane Winston, Parent

*"I wish you had a blog. I learn so much about "the business" from you and really value your opinion. Like the advice you gave me about the right college for my child, really opened up our minds for Sabrina to pursue college paths that were not necessarily dance focused. It took a lot of pressure off of her in her research for schools and preparation for applying (and auditioning). So I just wanted to thank you again for spending the time to respond to my questions. I know how busy you are and we really value your input. " - Scott Beisner, Parent

*"Jim has done a great job representing my 3 daughters. He is professional and well respected in the industry. He values talent and looks for opportunities that fit the needs of his clients. I am in the computer industry and appreciate the fact that he uses modern technology to communicate upcoming jobs. Two of my daughters received a job on "Two And Half Men". It was an experience of a lifetime for them. Without Jim's help, this would not have been possible. The staff at Warner Brothers was excellent and they appreciated the partnership of an organized agent sending them talented actors. They were very thankful to have great kids to work with and mentioned it to us many times. Jim is asset to any team. He has great networking skills and many connections with well respected choreographers, photographers and judges in the dance and cheer industries. We value Jim as our agent and look forward to our continued partnership." - Cheryl Badley, Parent

STUDIO OWNERS

*"Jim Keith's involvement in any event that educates aspiring dancers is a must. His straight forward delivery of the reality of what it takes to become a professional dancer today resonated with all the participants and parents at my competition. His seminar added an invaluable element that I would not consider holding an event without." - Leo Gallegos, Studio Owner, Workshop Director

STUDENTS

*"You can tell Jim Keith is very passionate about his work. His confidence and knowledge of the dance industry from both an entertainment standpoint, as well as a business standpoint, makes him one of a kind when it comes to dance agents. After talking with him for only a few hours, I could see how invested Jim is in his clients and that making them hireable is his main priority. What I love about him is that, unlike many agents, he used to be a dancer, so he can easily relate to what his clients go through on a daily basis. His experiences allow him to be a compassionate artist while remaining a professional businessman. He taught me that to be a successful dancer you must "find your individuality and make it strong enough to leave an impression on someone." Because of his passion, dedication, and knowledge, I would recommend him to any dancers seeking representation in this industry." - Riley Groot, AMDA Senior

*"Jim was a really great experience for us, and I'm thankful that he came to our class to talk! Not only did he bring the reality and honesty about the reality of the industry to life, but he was also very funny and made it entertaining to hear what he had to say. His vibrant personality captured me and made me all the more excited to go agent hunting and start work. He's the type of guy that knows his stuff and won't sugar coat things for your pleasure. He tells you how it is- and I appreciate that." - Christina Papendrea, AMDA Senior

*"I really enjoyed all the honest insight Jim was able to give us. It's not often you find someone who won't sugar coat everything into what you want to hear. It was also very helpful to learn about the industry from an agents point of view. His advice definitely put some things into perspective and even motivated me to push harder for what I'm trying to achieve in the future." - Josie Camden, AMDA Senior

*"I had an amazing experience with Jim Keith. He was very straight forward and honest, which we as young artists need. He made me realize that it doesn't matter what exactly someone is looking for. I have to be so good they can't turn me away. That was a big eye opener for me. Also, I realized how important my pictures are to the casting process and to my overall image. I really appreciated Jim's stories and advice." - Ashley Scates, AMDA Senior

*"I definitely enjoyed having Jim speak to our class this past Monday. I felt like as soon as he walked in the door I connected with him and it's probably because of his outfit: down to earth, Star Wars shirt kinda guy. I probably would have felt less of a connection and more intimidated if he came in a suit and tie. I loved how informative he was and how he expanded on subjects we asked him about and connected to other subjects we didn't even mention. He was extremely honest which growing up in the dance world seems to not be shown because right off the back everyone wants you to think you're good as a kid. He was upfront about how rough this industry really is and how we need to stay connected to help each other work. I love all the information he gave us because now I feel more ready and aware for when I do have an agent on what to expect and how to go about certain situations." - Sarah Boyce, AMDA Senior

"Having the chance to speak with Jim Keith made me feel more planted on my feet as far as my future goes. He made me realize the importance of honesty, truth and knowledge. His inspiring words took me back to home! Where my teachers had always given me the complete truth on life as well as my dancing. Hearing him speak just completely reinsured the reason I started dancing and why I plan to continue. It's the hunger, the falls on my face and the complete honesty that has allowed me to be where I am at this moment. And I look forward to where those lessons get me in the long run!" - Rukiya McCormick, AMDA Senior

"Jim Keith spoke with our graduating dance class at American Musical Dramatic Academy. Not only did Jim present himself with a direct and honest approach, but he also had a genuine warmth and great sense of humor. I benefited from his wealth of knowledge and appreciate how straightforward he was in his communication." - Olivia Lucci, AMDA Senior

"Jim Keith gives future entertainment professionals what they need. He brings his sharp and unique personality into the room and answers questions in a whole new light. Jim has exactly what majority of educators are lacking, the ability to prepare young adults for what comes next. He inspires and motivates through sharing his own life experiences and most importantly Jim informs dancers of nothing but the truth and what they really need to succeed. " - Marisa Warren, AMDA Senior

DANCERS

"Through my transitions in this dance community Jim Keith has welcomed all of my endeavors. As an agent he has supported my decisions and tells me what he thinks is best with honesty and kindness. The best thing an agent can do for their client is fight for what they deserve and know how and where to sell/present them to their best capabilities. Jim Keith does exactly that. " - Ayesha Orange, Professional Dancer

"Jim Keith is such a fantastic agent, he took a chance on me and signed me when I was fresh off the boat from Australia in my first US audition. I don't think I would have had the same career, if it wasn't for that chance he took on signing me. I am forever grateful for his hard work and persistence. Jim has always pushed me to new heights and kept me honest and passionate about the dancer I was and have grown to become. I am so happy to have Jim and the hard working agents at MTA. Jim's loyalty and hard work as an agent has kept me consistent and determined on perfecting my craft. Thank You Jim! " - Laura New, Professional Dancer, Singer
